SPECIALIZED INSURANCE FOR WILDLAND FIREFIGHTING CONTRACTORS

WildPro, by McNeil & Co., is the first-ever property and casualty insurance program designed specifically for the wildland fire suppression industry, including businesses that provide engines, tender, hand crews, camp administration, contract catering and other support services.

Based on more than 30 years of success insuring the fire industry, along with insights from wildland firefighting experts, WildPro offers deep understanding of your needs and exposures and a comprehensive program designed to offer one answer for nearly all your coverage requirements. Our approach goes beyond traditional insurance, with a full package of risk management services to help you run a safer, more secure operation.

WildPro offers the attention and expertise you can only expect from people who live and breathe your business, and we're ready to design an insurance package customized to your needs.
