

PROTECTING FAMILIES. PROMOTING LOYALTY.

Creating an ESIP Benefits package for your emergency services volunteers recognizes the dangers they bravely face and helps to reward their commitment and sacrifice. We know all too well that unforeseen events can occur during emergencies – despite even our most ambitious safety measures. By offering a McNeil & Co. Benefits package, you can provide for the financial needs of members who suffer tragic accidents or fatalities, events that can leave families without fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers.

Available Benefits Include:

Death Benefits

Lump sum benefit paid for loss of life due to injury or illness

Critical Burn

Supplemental benefits paid for disfigurement caused by burns

Disability Income

Weekly Income benefits paid for disability caused by injury or illness

Medical Expense

Coverage for medical care and related expenses

Family Expense

Reimbursement for travel and other family costs if receiving medical treatment

Permanent Physical Impairment

Lump sum and education benefits available

Family Education & Survivor Benefits

Lump sum benefits payable in conjunction with death benefits

Assist America Emergency Services

Global emergency medical evacuation and repatriation while traveling - includes off-duty coverage

Post-Traumatic Stress Benefit

Coverage for counseling as needed following traumatic event

Accidental Death & Dismemberment (Due To Injury Only)

24-hour AD&D coverage and off-duty coverage available

Find out what our full package has to offer by requesting an Accident & Health proposal. Information, along with an application, can be obtained by visiting our website:

McNeilandCompany.com/GetBenefits

SALES CONTACT:

*Insurance benefits described above are administered by McNeil & Co. and underwritten by Arch Insurance Company, with administrative offices in Jersey City, NJ (NAIC #11150). This is a brief description of coverage provided and is subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of the policy. Please see the policy and confirmation of coverage for complete details. Coverage may vary or may not be available in all states. In the event of any conflict between this summary of coverage and the policy, the policy will govern. The policy is a short-term policy, with limited benefits. This insurance is not an alternative or replacement to comprehensive medical or major medical coverage. Further, this insurance is not minimum essential benefits as set forth under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.