

McNeil & Co EMS Continuing Education

CAPCE: <http://capce.org> Commission on Accreditation for Pre-Hospital Continuing Education. CAPCE is the nationally accrediting body for EMS continuing education course providers. Through the approval of McNeil and Co. Organizational Accreditation, we have demonstrated that we meet CAPCE requirements for awarding CAPCE accreditation for EMS continuing education activities.

CAPCE is automatically accepted in 47 states. McNeil & Co must report course completions to the CAPCE database for verification by NREMT, state EMS offices, training officers, and individual EMS professionals. It is not automatic for FL, NY, or PA

Our Risk Management team is prepared to assist you on the information that is needed for McNeil & Co to submit continuing education records on your behalf through real-time reporting from the ELearning training platform. Please contact our Risk Management Customer Service line at 1(800)822-3747 Ext 176 for assistance.

You will receive a pop-up which gives 3 choices when you log in to your account: Remind me later, Don't ask again, or Take me to my profile: He or she will need to enter EMS Certification information into the user profile for successful course completion records to be submitted for continuing education to CAPCE.

Once you enter the profile screen, check the Submit my completed EMS related courses to CAPCE box to add in the necessary information:
